Provided that no member of the Council of Ministers for the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi shall be eligible to be elected to the Authority.

Explanation— For the purposes of this clause, “ruling party” and “party in opposition to Government” shall mean the ruling party and the party in opposition to the Government recognised as such by the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of the National Capital Territory of Delhi.]

²[(g) three other persons to be nominated by the Central Government, of whom one shall be a person with experience of town planning or architecture; and]

(h) the Commissioner of the Municipal Corporation of Delhi, ex officio.

²[(3-A) The appointment of the vice-chairman may be either whole-time or part time as the Central Government may think fit but the appointment of the finance and accounts member and the engineer member shall be whole-time.]

²[(4) The vice-chairman, if he is a whole-time member, the finance and accounts member and the engineer member shall be entitled to receive from the funds of the Authority such salaries and such allowances, if any, and governed by such conditions of service as may be determined by rules made in this behalf.

(5) The vice-chairman, if he is a part-time member, and other members specified in clause (e), clause (f) and clause (g) of sub-section (3) may be paid from the funds of the Authority such allowances, if any, as may be fixed by the Central Government in this behalf.]

(6) The vice-chairman, the finance and accounts member, the engineer member and the ³[three members] referred to in clause (g) of sub-section (3) shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government ⁴

⁵[(7) An elected member shall hold office for a term of five years from the date of his election to the Authority and shall be eligible for re-election:

Provided that such term shall come to an end as soon as the member ceases to be a member of the body from which he was elected.]

1. Subs. by Act No. 36 of 1996, S. 3 (w.e.f. 21-12-1996). Earlier subs. by Act No. 19 of 1966, S. 36.

2. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S.3.

3. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S.3, for “two members”.

4. Omitted by Act No. 19 of 1966, S. 36 (w.e.f. 7-9-1966).

5. Sub. by Act No. 19 of 1966, s. 36, (w.e.f. 7-9-1966).

(9) A member other than an ex officio member may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Central Government but shall continue in office until his resignation is accepted by that Government.

(10) No act or proceedings of the Authority shall be invalid by reason of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Authority.

4. Staff of the Authority— (1) The Central Government may appoint two suitable persons respectively as the secretary and the chief accounts officer of the Authority who shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed by regulations or delegated to them by the Authority or the chairman.

(2) Subject to such control and restrictions as may be prescribed by rules, the Authority may appoint such number of other officers and employees (including experts for technical work) as may be necessary for the efficient performance of its functions and may determine their designations and grades.

(3) The secretary, chief accounts officer and other officers and employees of the Authority shall be entitled to receive from the funds of the Authority such salaries and such allowances, if any, and shall be governed by such conditions of service as may be determined by regulations made in this behalf.

5. Advisory Council— (1) The Authority shall, as soon as may be, constitute an advisory council for the purpose of advising the Authority on the preparation of the master plan and ¹[on such other matters relating to the planning of development, or] arising out of, or in connection with, the administration of this Act as may be referred to it by the Authority.

(2) The advisory council shall consist of the following members, namely :—

- (a) the chairman of the Authority, ex officio, who shall be the president;
- (b) two persons with knowledge of town planning or architecture to be nominated by the Central Government ;
- (c) one representative of the Health Services of Delhi Administration to be nominated by the Central Government ;

 - (ii) one shall be elected by the members of the Delhi Water Supply and Sewage Disposal Committee from among themselves;
- (ee) one representative of the Delhi Transport Corporation to be nominated by the Central Government;]

1. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 4, for certain words.

2. Subs. by Act No. 38 of 1984, S. 2 (w.e.f. 15-3-1985).

- (f) three persons to be nominated by the Central Government of whom one shall represent the interests of commerce and industry and one, the interests of labour, in Delhi;
- (g) four persons from the technical departments of the Central Government to be nominated by that Government; and
- (h) three members of Parliament of whom two shall be members of the House of the People and one shall be a member of the Council of States to be elected respectively by the members of the House of the People and the members of the Council of States.

(3) The Council shall meet as and when necessary and shall have the power to regulate its own procedure.

(4) An elected member shall hold office for a term of four years from the date of his election to the council and shall be eligible for re-election.

Provided that such term shall come to an end as soon as the member ceases to be a member of the body from which he was elected.

[5-A. Constitution of Committees— (1) The Authority may constitute as many committees consisting wholly of members or wholly of other persons or partly of members and partly of other persons and for such purpose or purposes as it may think fit.

(2) A committee constituted under this section shall meet at such time and place and shall observe such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings as may be determined by regulations made in this behalf.

(3) The members of a committee (other than the members of the Authority) shall be paid such fees and allowances for attending its meetings and for attending to any other work of the Authority, as may be determined by regulations made in this behalf.]

6. Objects of the Authority— The objects of the Authority shall be to promote and secure the development of Delhi according to plan and for that purpose the Authority shall have the power to acquire, hold, manage and dispose of land and other property, to carry out building, engineering, mining and other operations, to execute works in connection with supply of water and electricity, disposal of sewage and other services and amenities and generally to do anything necessary or expedient for purposes of such development and for purposes incidental thereto.

Provided that save as provided in this Act, nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as authorising the disregard by the Authority of any law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER III

MASTER PLAN AND ZONAL DEVELOPMENT PLANS

7. Civic survey of, and master plan for Delhi— (1) The Authority shall, as soon as may be, carry out a civic survey of, and prepare a master plan for, Delhi.

1. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S.5

(2) The master plan shall—

- (a) define the various zones into which Delhi may be divided for the purposes of development and indicate the manner in which the land in each zone is proposed to be used (whether by the carrying out thereon of development or otherwise) and the stages by which any such development shall be carried out; and
- (b) serve as a basic pattern of frame-work within which the zonal development plans of the various zones may be prepared.

¹[(3) The master plan may provide for any other matter which is necessary for the proper development of Delhi.]

8. Zonal development plans— (1) Simultaneously with the preparation of the master plan or as soon as may be thereafter, the Authority shall proceed with the preparation of a zonal development plan for each of the zones into which Delhi may be divided.

(2) A zonal development plan may—

- (a) contain a site-plan and use-plan for the development of the zone and show the approximate locations and extents of land-uses proposed in the zone for such things as public buildings and other public works and utilities, roads, housing, recreation, industry, business, markets, schools, hospitals and public and private open spaces and other categories of public and private uses;
- (b) specify the standards of population density and building density;
- (c) show every are in the zone which may, in the opinion of the Authority, be required or declared for development or redevelopment; and
- (d) in particular, contain provisions regarding all or any of the following matters, namely :—
 - (i) the division of any site into plots for the erection of buildings;
 - (ii) the allotment or reservation of land for roads, open spaces, gardens, recreation grounds, schools, markets and other public purposes;
 - (iii) the development of any area into a township or colony and the restrictions and conditions subject to which such development may be undertaken or carried out;
 - (iv) the erection of building on any site and the restrictions and conditions in regard to the open spaces to be maintained in or around buildings and height and character of buildings;
 - (v) the alignment of buildings on any site;
 - (vi) the architectural features of the elevation or frontage of any building to be erected on any site;

1. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S.6.

- (vii) the number of residential buildings which may be erected on any plot or site;
- (viii) the amenities to be provided in relation to any site or buildings on such site whether before or after the erection of buildings and the person or authority by whom or at whose expense such amenities are to be provided;
- (ix) the prohibitions or restrictions regarding erection of shops, workshops warehouses or factories or buildings of a specified architectural feature or buildings designed for particular purposes in the locality;
- (x) the maintenance of walls, fences, hedges or any other structural or architectural construction and the height at which they shall be maintained;
- (xi) the restrictions regarding the use of any site for purposes other than erection of buildings; and
- (xii) any other matter which is necessary for the proper development of the zone or any area thereof according to plan and for preventing buildings being erected haphazardly in such zone or area.

9. Submission of plans to the Central Government for approval— (1) In this section and in sections 10, 11, 12, and 14 the word "plan" means the master plan as well as the zonal development plan for a zone.

(2) Every plan shall, as soon as may be after its preparation, be submitted by the Authority to the Central Government for approval and that Government may either approve the plan without modifications or with such modifications as it may consider necessary or reject the plan with directions to the Authority to prepare a fresh plan according to such directions.

10. Procedure to be followed in the preparation and approval of plans— (1) Before preparing any plan finally and submitting it to the Central Government for approval, the Authority shall prepare a plan in draft and publish it by making a copy thereof available for inspection and publishing a notice in such form and manner as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf inviting objections and suggestions from any person with respect to the draft plan before such date as may be specified in the notice.

(2) The Authority shall also give reasonable opportunities to every local authority within whose local limits any land touched by the plan is situated, to make any representation with respect to the plan.

(3) After considering all objections, suggestions and representations that may have been received by the Authority, the Authority shall finally prepare the plan and submit it to the Central Government for its approval.

(4) Provisions may be made by rules made in this behalf with respect to the form and content of a plan and with respect to the procedure to be followed and any other matter, in connection with the preparation, submission and approval of such plan.

(5) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section the Central Government may direct the Authority to furnish such information as that Government may require for the purpose of approving any plan submitted to it under this section.

11. Date of operation of plans— Immediately after a plan has been approved by the Central Government, the Authority shall publish in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations a notice stating that a plan has been approved and naming a place where a copy of the plan may be inspected at all reasonable hours and upon the date of the first publication of the aforesaid notice the plan shall come into operation.

[CHAPTER III-A

MODIFICATIONS TO THE MASTER PLAN AND THE ZONAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN

11-A. Modifications to plan— (1) The Authority may make any modifications to the master plan or the zonal development plan as it thinks fit, being modifications which, in its opinion, do not effect important alterations in the character of the plan and which do not relate to the extent of land-users or the standards of population density.

(2) The Central Government may make any modifications to the master plan or the zonal development plan whether such modifications are of the nature specified in sub-section (1) or otherwise.

(3) Before making any modifications to the plan, the Authority or, as the case may be, the Central Government shall publish a notice in such form and manner as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf inviting objections and suggestions from any person with respect to the proposed modifications before such date as may be specified in the notice and shall consider all objections and suggestions that may be received by the Authority or the Central Government.

(4) Every modification made under the provisions of this section shall be published in such manner as the Authority or the Central Government, as the case may be, may specify and the modifications shall come into operation either on the date of the publication or on such other date as the Authority or the Central Government may fix.

(5) When the Authority makes any modifications to the plan under sub-section (1) it shall report to the Central Government the full particulars of such modifications within thirty days of the date on which such modifications come into operation.

(6) If any question arises whether the modifications proposed to be made by the Authority are modifications which effect important alterations in the character of the plan or whether they relate to the extent of land-uses or the standards of population density, it shall be referred to the Central Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

1. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S.7.

(7) Any reference in any other Chapter, except Chapter III, to the master plan or the zonal development plan shall be construed as a reference to the master plan or the zonal development plan as modified under the provisions of this section.]

CHAPTER IV

DEVELOPMENT OF LANDS

12. Declaration of development areas and development of land in those and other areas—¹[(1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare any area in Delhi to be a development area for the purposes of this Act.

Provided that no such declaration shall be made unless a proposal for such declaration has been referred by the Central Government to the Authority and the Municipal Corporation of Delhi for expressing their views thereon within thirty days from the date of the receipt of the reference or within such further period as the Central Government may allow and the period so specified or allowed has expired.]

(2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the Authority shall not undertake or carry out any development of land in any area which is not a development area.

(3) After the commencement of this Act no development of land shall be undertaken or carried out in any area by any person or body (including a department of Government) unless,—

- (i) where that area is a development area, permission for such development has been obtained in writing from the Authority in accordance with the provision of this Act,
- (ii) where that area is an area other than a development area, approval of, or sanction for, such development has been obtained in writing from the local authority concerned or any officer or authority thereof empowered or authorised in this behalf, in accordance with the provisions made by or under the law governing such authority or until such provisions have been made, in accordance with the provisions of the regulations relating to the grant of permission for development made under the Delhi (Control of Building Operations) Act, 1955 (53 of 1955), and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act.

Provided that the local authority concerned may ²[subject to the provisions of section 53-A] amend those regulations in their application to such area.

1. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 8.

2. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 8.

(4) After the coming into operation of any of the plans in any area no development shall be undertaken or carried out in that area unless such development is also in accordance with such plans.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (3) and (4) development of any land begun by any department of Government or any local authority before the commencement of this Act may be completed by that department or local authority without compliance with the requirements of those sub-sections.

13. Application for permission— (1) Every person or body (including a department of Government) desiring to obtain the permission referred to in section 12 shall make an application in writing to the Authority in such form and containing such particulars in respect of the development to which the application relates as may be prescribed by regulations.

(2) Every application under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed by rules.

Provided that no such fee shall be necessary in the case of an application made by a department of the Government.

(3) On the receipt of an application for permission under sub-section (1), the Authority after making such inquiry as it considers necessary in relation to any matter specified in clause (d) of sub-section (2) of section 8 or in relation to any other matter, shall, by order in writing, either grant the permission, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order or refuse to grant such permission.

Provided that before making an order refusing such permission, the applicant shall be given a reasonable opportunity to show cause why the permission should not be refused.

(4) Where permission is refused, the grounds of such refusal shall be recorded in writing and communicated to the applicant in the manner prescribed by regulations.

(5) The Authority shall keep in such form as may be prescribed by regulations a register of applications for permission under this section.

(6) The said register shall contain such particulars including information as to the manner in which applications for permission have been dealt with as may be prescribed by regulations and shall be available for inspection by any member of the public at all reasonable hours on payment of such fee not exceeding rupees five as may be prescribed by regulations.

(7) Where permission is refused under this section, the applicant or any person claiming through him shall not be entitled to get refund of the fee paid on the application for permission but the Authority may, on an application for refund being made within three months of the communication of the grounds of the refusal under sub-section (4) direct refund of such portion of the fee as to it may seem proper in the circumstances of the case.

14. User of land and buildings in contravention of plans— After the coming into operation of any of the plans in a zone no person shall use or permit to be used any land or building in that zone otherwise than in conformity with such plan.

Provided that it shall be lawful to continue to use upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by regulations made in this behalf any land or building for the purpose and to the extent for and to which it is being used upon the date on which such plan comes into force.

CHAPTER V

ACQUISITION AND DISPOSAL OF LAND

[15. Compulsory acquisition of land— (1) If in the opinion of the Central Government, any land is required for the purpose of development, or for any other purpose, under this Act, the Central Government may acquire such land under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1984).

(2) Where any land has been acquired by the Central Government, that Government may, after it has taken possession of the land, transfer the land to the Authority or any local authority for the purpose for which the land has been acquired on payment by the Authority or the local authority of the compensation awarded under that Act and of the charges incurred by the Government in connection with the acquisition.]

16. [Compensation for compulsory acquisition of land.] Rep. by the Delhi Development (Amendment) Act, 1963 (56 of 1963), Section 10 (retrospectively).

17. [Appeal to the district judge against decision of the collector.] Rep. by Section 10, ibid. (retrospectively).

18. [Disputes as to apportionment of the compensation.] Rep. by Section 10, ibid. (retrospectively).

19. [Payment of compensation or deposit of the same in court.] Rep. by section 10, ibid. (retrospectively).

20. [Investment of the amount of compensation deposited in court.] Rep. by Section 10, ibid. (retrospectively).

21. Disposal of land by the Authority or the local Authority concerned— (1) Subject to any directions given by the Central Government under this Act, the Authority or, as the case may be, the local authority concerned may dispose of—

- (a) any land acquired by the Central Government and transferred to it, without undertaking or carrying out any development thereon; or
- (b) any such land after undertaking or carrying out such development as it thinks fit, to such persons, in such manner and subject to such terms and conditions as it considers expedient for securing the development of Delhi according to plan.

1. Subs. retrospectively by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 9, for s. 15 (retrospectively).

(2) The powers of the Authority or, as case may be, the local authority concerned with respect to the disposal of land under sub-section (1) shall be so exercised as to secure, so far as practicable, that persons who are living or carrying on business or other activities on the land shall, if they desire to obtain accommodation on land belonging to the Authority or the local authority concerned and are willing to comply with any requirements of the Authority or the local authority concerned as to its development and use, have an opportunity to obtain thereon accommodation suitable to their reasonable requirements on terms settled with due regard to the price at which any such land has been acquired from them.

Provided that where the Authority or the local authority concerned proposes to dispose of by sale any land without any development having been undertaken or carried out thereon, it shall offer the land in the first instance to the persons from whom it was acquired, if they desire to purchase it subject to such requirements as to its development and use as the Authority or the local authority concerned may think fit to impose.

(3) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as enabling the Authority or the local authority concerned to dispose of land by way of gift, mortgage or charge, but subject as aforesaid reference in this Act to the disposal of land shall be construed as reference to the disposal thereof in any manner, whether by way of sale, exchange or lease or by the creation of any easement right or privilege or otherwise.

22. Nazul lands— (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between that Government and the Authority, place at the disposal of the Authority all or any developed and undeveloped lands in Delhi vested in the Union (known and hereinafter referred to as "nazul lands") for the purpose of development in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) No development of any nazul land shall be undertaken or carried out except by, or under the control and supervision of, the Authority after such land has been placed at the disposal of the Authority under sub-section (1).

(3) After any such nazul land has been developed by, or under the control and supervision of, the Authority, it shall be dealt with by the Authority in accordance with rules made and directions given by the Central Government in this behalf.

(4) If any nazul land placed at the disposal of the Authority under sub-section (1) is required at any time thereafter by the Central Government, the Authority shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, replace it at the disposal of that Government upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between that Government and the Authority.

[22-A. Power of Authority to develop land in non-development area— Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) of Section 12, the Authority may, if it is of opinion that it is expedient to do so, undertake or carry out any development of any land which has been transferred to it or placed as its disposal under section 15 or section 22 even if such land is situate in any area which is not a development area.]

1. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S.11.

CHAPTER VI

FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

23. Fund of the Authority—(1) The Authority shall have and maintain its own fund to which shall be credited—

- (a) all moneys received by the Authority from the Central Government by way of grants, loans, advances or otherwise;
- ¹[(aa) all moneys borrowed by the Authority from sources other than the Central Government by way of loans or debentures;]
- (b) all fees and charges received by the Authority under this Act;
- (c) all moneys received by the Authority from the disposal of lands, buildings and other properties, movable and immovable; and
- (d) all moneys received by the Authority by way of rents and profits; or in any other manner or from any other source.

(2) The fund shall be applied towards meeting the expenses incurred by the Authority in the administration of this Act and for no other purposes.

(3) The Authority may keep in current account of the State Bank of India or any other bank approved by the Central Government in this behalf such sum of money out of its fund as may be prescribed by rules and any money in excess of the said sum shall be invested in such manner as may be approved by the Central Government.

(4) The Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, make such grants, advances and loans to the Authority as the Government may deem necessary for the performance of the functions of the Authority under this Act; and all grants, loans and advances made shall be on such terms and conditions as the Central Government may determine.

¹[(5) The Authority may borrow money by way of loans or debentures from such sources (other than the Central Government) and on such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Central Government.

(6) The Authority shall maintain a sinking fund for the repayment of moneys borrowed under sub-section (5), and shall pay every year into the sinking fund such sum as may be sufficient for repayment within the period fixed of all moneys so borrowed.

1. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S.12.

(7) The sinking fund or any part thereof shall be applied in, or towards, the discharge of the loan for which such fund was created, and until such loan is wholly discharged it shall not be applied for any other purpose.]

24. Budget of the Authority— The Authority shall prepare in such form and at such time every year as may be prescribed by rules a budget in respect of the financial year next ensuing showing the estimated receipts and expenditure of the Authority and shall forward to the Central Government such number of copies thereof as may be prescribed by rules.

25. Accounts and audit— (1) The Authority shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts including the balance-sheet in such form as the Central Government may by rules prescribe in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(2) The accounts of the Authority shall be subject to audit annually by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any expenditure incurred by him in connection with such audit shall be payable by the Authority to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(3) The Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any person appointed by him in connection with the audit of accounts of the Authority shall have the same right, privilege and authority in connection with such audit as the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India has in connection with the audit of the Government accounts and, in particular, shall have the right to demand the production of books, accounts, connected vouchers and other documents and papers and to inspect the office of the Authority.

(4) The accounts of the Authority as certified by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or any other person appointed by him in this behalf together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded annually to the Central Government and that Government shall cause a copy of the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

26. Annual report— The Authority shall prepare for every year a report of its activities during that year and submit the report to the Central Government in such form and on or before such date as may be prescribed by rules, and that Government shall cause a copy of the report to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

27. Pension and provident funds— (1) The Authority shall constitute for the benefit of its whole-time paid members and of its officers and other employees in such manner and subject to such conditions, as may be prescribed by rules, such pension and provident funds as it may deem fit.

(2) Where any such pension or provident fund has been constituted, the Central Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (19 of 1925), shall apply to such fund as if it were a Government Provident Fund.

CHAPTER VII

SUPPLEMENTAL AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

28. Powers of entry— The Authority may authorise any person to enter into or upon any land or building with or without assistants or workmen for the purpose of—

- (a) making any enquiry, inspection, measurement or survey or taking levels of such land or building;
- (b) examining works under construction and ascertaining the course of sewers and drains;
- (c) digging or boring into the sub-soil;
- (d) setting out boundaries and intended lines of work;
- (e) making such levels, boundaries and lines by placing marks and cutting trenches;
- (f) ascertaining whether any land is being or has been developed in contravention of the master plan or zonal development plan or without the permission referred to in section 12 or in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission has been granted; or
- (g) doing any other thing necessary for the efficient administration of this Act.

Provided that—

- (i) no such entry shall be made except between the hours of sunrise and sunset and without giving reasonable notice to the occupier, or if there be no occupier, to the owner of the land or building;
- (ii) sufficient opportunity shall in every instance be given to enable women (if any) to withdraw from such land or building;
- (iii) due regard shall always be had, so far as may be compatible with the exigencies of the purpose for which the entry is made, to the social and religious usages of the occupants of the land or building entered.

29. Penalties— (1) Any person who whether at his own instance or at the instance of any other person or any body (including a department of Government) undertakes or carries out development of any land in contravention of the master plan or zonal development plan or without the permission, approval or sanction referred to in section 12 or in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission, approval or sanction has been granted, '[shall be punishable,—

1. Subs. by Act No. 38 of 1984, S. 3 for certain words, (w.e.f. 15-3-85).

- (a) with rigorous imprisonment which may extend to three years, if such development relates to utilising, selling or otherwise dealing with any land with a view to the setting up of a colony without a lay out plan; and
- (b) with simple imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or with both, in any case, other than those referred to in clause (a).]

(2) Any person who uses any land or building in contravention of the provisions of section 14 or in contravention of any terms and conditions prescribed by regulations under the proviso to that section shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees ¹[and in the case of a continuing offence, with further fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees for every day during which such offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence].

(3) Any person who obstructs the entry of a person authorised under section 28 to enter into or upon any land or building or molests such person after such entry shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

30. Order of demolition of building—²[(1) Where any development has been commenced or is being carried on or has been completed in contravention of the master plan or zonal development plan or without the permission, approval or sanction referred to in section 12 or in contravention of any conditions subject to which such permission, approval or sanction has been granted,—

- (i) in relation to a development area, any officer of the Authority empowered by it in this behalf,
- (ii) in relation to any other area within the local limits of a local authority, the competent authority thereof, may, in addition to any prosecution that may be instituted under this Act, make an order directing that such development shall be removed by demolition, filling or otherwise by the owner thereof or by the person at whose instance the development has been commenced or is being carried out or has been completed, within such period (not being less than five days and more than fifteen days from the date on which a copy of the order of removal, with a brief statement of the reasons therefor, has been delivered to the owner or that person) as may be specified in the order and on his failure to comply with the order, the officer of the Authority or, as the case may be, the competent authority may remove or cause to be removed the development and the expenses of such removal shall be recovered from the owner or the person at whose instance the development was commenced or was being carried out or was completed as arrears of land revenue.

1. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 13.

2. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 14, for sub-section (1).

Provided that no such order shall be made unless the owner or the person concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity to show cause why the order should not be made.

(I-A) If any development in an area other than a development area has been commenced or is being carried on or has been completed in contravention of the master plan or zonal development plan or without the approval or sanction referred to in section 12 or in contravention of any conditions, subject to which such approval or sanction has been granted and the competent authority has failed to remove or cause to be removed the development within the time that may be specified in this behalf by the *[Lieutenant Governor] of the *[National Capital Territory of Delhi], the *[Lieutenant Governor] may, after observing such procedure as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf, direct any officer to remove or cause to be removed such development and that officer shall be bound to carry out such direction and any expenses of such removal may be recovered from the owner or the person at whose instance the development was commenced or was being carried out or was completed as arrears of land revenue.]

(2) ¹[]

²[(2-A) Any person aggrieved by the direction of the *[Lieutenant Governor] under sub-section (1-A) may appeal to the Central Government within thirty days from the date thereof, and the Central Government may after giving an opportunity of hearing to the person aggrieved, either allow or dismiss the appeal or may reverse or vary any part of the direction.]

³[(3) The decision of ⁴[the Central Government on the appeal and subject only to such decision] the direction under sub-section (1-A), shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

(4) The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other provision relating to demolition of buildings contained in any other law for the time being in force.]

⁵[31. Power to stop development— (1) Where any development in any area has been commenced in contravention of the master plan or zonal development plan or without the permission, approval or sanction referred to in section 12 or in contravention of any conditions subject to which such permission, approval or sanction has been granted,—

- (i) in relation to a development area, the Authority or any officer of the Authority empowered by it in this behalf,
- (ii) in relation to any other area within the local limits of a local authority, the competent authority thereof,

1. Omitted by Act No. 38 of 1984, S. 4 (w.e.f. 24-2-1986).

2. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 14.

3. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 14.

4. Subs. by Act No. 38 of 1984, S. 4 (w.e.f. 24-2-1986).

5. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 15.

may, in addition to any prosecution that may be instituted under this Act, make an order requiring the development to be discontinued on and from the date of the service of the order, and such order shall be complied with accordingly.

(2) Where such development is not discontinued in pursuance of the order under sub-section (1), the Authority or the officer of the Authority or the competent authority, as the case may be, may require any police officer to remove the person by whom the development has been commenced and all his assistants and workmen from the place of development ¹[or to seize any construction material, tool, machinery, scaffolding or other things used in such development] within such time as may be specified in the requisition and such police officer shall comply with the requisition accordingly.

(2-B) The charges for the removal and storage of the things sold under sub-section (2-A) shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale thereof and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the things sold on a claim being made therefor within a period of one year from the date of sale, and if no such claim is made within the said period, shall be credited to the fund of the Authority or the competent authority, as the case may be].

(3) If any development in an area other than a development area has been commenced in contravention of the master plan or zonal development plan or without the approval or sanction referred to in section 12 or in contravention of any conditions subject to which such approval or sanction has been granted and the competent authority has failed to make an order under sub-section (1) or, as the case may be, a requisition under sub-section (2), within the time that may be specified in this behalf by the [Lieutenant Governor] of the [National Capital Territory of Delhi], the [Lieutenant Governor] may, after observing such procedure as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf, direct any officer to make the order or requisition, as the case may be, and that officer shall be bound to carry out such direction and the order or requisition made by him in pursuance of the direction shall be complied with accordingly.

(4) After the requisition under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) has been complied with, the Authority or the competent authority or the officer to whom the direction was issued by the [Lieutenant Governor] under sub-section (3), as the case may be, may depute by a written order a police officer or an officer or employee of the Authority or local authority concerned to watch the place in order to ensure that the development is not continued.

1. Ins. by Act No. 38 of 1984, S.5 (w.e.f. 12-3-1985).

(5) Any person failing to comply with an order under sub-section (1) or, as the case may be, under sub-section (3), shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for every day during which the non-compliance continues after the service of the order.

(6) No compensation shall be claimable by any person for any damage which he may sustain in consequence of the removal of any development under section 30 or the discontinuance of the development under this section.

(7) ¹[]

(8) The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other provision relating to stoppage of building operations contained in any other law for the time being in force.]

²[31-A. Power to seal unauthorised development— (1) It shall be lawful for the Authority, or the competent authority, as the case may be, at any time, before or after making an order for the removal or discontinuance of any development under section 30 or section 31, to make an order directing the sealing of such development in the manner prescribed by rules, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, or for preventing any dispute as to the nature and extent of such development.

(2) Where any development has been sealed, the Authority or the competent authority, as the case may be, may, for the purpose of removing or discontinuing such development order the seal to be removed.

(3) No person shall remove such seal except—

- (a) under an order made by the Authority or the competent authority under sub-section (2); or
- (b) under an order of the Appellate Tribunal or the ^{}[Lieutenant Governor] of the ^{}[National Capital Territory of Delhi], made in an appeal under this Act.

31-B. Appellate Tribunal— The Appellate Tribunal or Appellate Tribunals constituted under section 347-A of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957 (66 of 1957), shall be deemed to be the Appellate Tribunal or Appellate Tribunals for deciding appeals under section 31-C, and the provisions of section 347-A and section 347-C of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957, and the rules made thereunder, shall, so far as may be, apply for the purposes of this Act as they apply for the purposes of that Act.

31-C. Appeals— (1) Any person aggrieved by any of the following orders made under this Act, may prefer an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal, namely:—

- (a) an order of the Authority granting or refusing to grant permission for development under sub-section (3) of section 13;

1. Omitted by Act No. 38 of 1984, S. 5, (w.e.f. 24-2-1987).

2. Section 31-A, 31-B, 31-C, 31-D and 31-E ins, by Act No. 38 of 1984, S.6 (w.e.f.24-2-1986).

- (b) an order of the Authority or the local authority disposing of any land under section 21;
- (c) an order of the Authority in the course of dealing with any nazul land developed by it under section 22;
- (d) an order of an officer of the Authority or the competent authority made under sub-section (1) of section 30, for the removal of any development;
- (e) an order of the Authority or an officer of the Authority or the competent authority made under sub-section (1) of section 31, for discontinuing any development;
- (f) an order of the Authority or the competent authority made under section 31-A, directing the sealing of any development.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be filed within thirty days from the date of the order appealed against.

Provided that the Appellate Tribunal may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not filing it within that period.

(3) An appeal to the Appellate Tribunal shall be made in such form and shall be accompanied by a copy of the order appealed against and by such fees as may be prescribed by rules.

31-D. Appeals against orders of Appellate Tribunal— (1) An appeal shall lie to the *[Lieutenant Governor] of the *[National Capital Territory of Delhi] against an order of the Appellate Tribunal, confirming, modifying or annulling an order of the Authority, officer of the Authority, local authority or competent authority, as the case may be, under this Act.

(2) The provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 31-C and the provisions of section 347-C of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957 (66 of 1957), and the rules made thereunder, shall, so far as may be, apply to the filing and disposal of an appeal under this section as they apply to the filing and disposal of an appeal under the said section 31-C.

(3) An order of the *[Lieutenant Governor] on an appeal under this section, and subject only to such order, an order of the Appellate Tribunal under section 31-C and subject to such orders of the *[Lieutenant Governor] or an Appellate Tribunal, an order of the Authority, officer of the Authority, local authority or competent authority referred to in sub-section (1) of that section shall be final.

Explanation— In Sections 30, 31, 31-A and 31-D, “competent authority” in relation to a local authority means any authority or officer of that local authority empowered or authorised to order demolition or stoppage of buildings or works, in accordance with the provisions made by or under the law governing such local authority.

31-E. Bar of jurisdiction of courts— (1) After the commencement of Section 6 of the Delhi Development (Amendment) Act, 1984 (38 of 1984), no court shall entertain any suit, application or other proceedings in respect of any order appealable under section 31-C, and no such order shall be called in question otherwise than by preferring an appeal under that section.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), every suit, application or other proceeding pending in any court immediately before the commencement of section 6 of the Delhi Development (Amendment) Act, 1984 (38 of 1984), in respect of any order, appealable under section 31-C shall continue to be dealt with and disposed of by that court as if the said section had not been brought into force.]

32. Offences by companies— (1) If the person committing an offence under this Act is a company, every person, who, at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation— For the purposes of this section—

(a) "company" means a body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director" in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.

33. Fines when realised to be paid to authority or local authority concerned— All fines realised in connection with prosecutions under this Act shall be paid to the Authority or, as the case may be, the local authority concerned.

34. Composition of offences—¹(1) Any offence made punishable by or under this Act may, either before or after the institution of proceedings, be compounded—

(i) in the case of an offence referred to in sub-section (2) of section 49, by the *[Lieutenant Governor] of the *[National Capital Territory of Delhi] or any officer authorised by him in this behalf by general or special order; and

1. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 16.

- (ii) in any other case, by the Authority, or, as the case may be, the local authority concerned or any person authorised by the Authority or such local authority by general or special order in this behalf.]

(2) Where an offence has been compounded, the offender, if in custody shall be discharged and no further proceedings shall be taken against him in respect of the offence compounded.

¹[34-A. Certain offences to be cognizable— The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), shall apply to an offence under sub-section (1) of Section 29 as if it were a cognizable offence,—

- (i) for the purposes of investigation of such offence; and
- (ii) for the purposes of all matters other than—
 - (1) matters referred to in section 42 of that Code, and
 - (2) arrest of a person except on the complaint of, or upon information received from:—
 - (a) such officer of the Authority not below the rank of a Director as may be appointed by the [Lieutenant Governor] of the [National Capital Territory of Delhi], if the offence is committed in relation to a development area;
 - (b) such officer of the Municipal Corporation of Delhi not below the rank of a Deputy Commissioner as may be appointed by the [Lieutenant Governor] of the [National Capital Territory of Delhi], if the offence is committed in relation to any area within the local limits of that Corporation; or
 - (c) the Secretary, New Delhi Municipal Committee, if the offence is committed in relation to any area within the local limits of that Committee:

Provided that no offence which relates to any deviation from the permission, approval or sanction given under section 12 and which could be compounded under the provisions of this Act, shall be cognizable.]

²[35. Default powers of the Authority— (1) If the Authority, after holding a local enquiry or upon report from any of its officers or other information in its possession, is satisfied that any amenity in relation to any land in development area has not been provided in relation to that land which in the opinion of the Authority is to be provided, or that any development of the land for which permission, approval or sanction has been obtained under this Act has not been carried out, it may, after affording a reasonable opportunity to show cause, serve upon the owner of the land or upon the person providing or responsible for providing the amenity a notice requiring him to provide the amenity or carry out the development within such time as may be specified in the notice.

1. Ins. by Act No. 38 of 1984, S.7 (w.e.f. 15-3-1985).

2. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 17.

(2) If any amenity is not provided or any such development is not carried out within the time specified in the notice, then the Authority may itself provide the amenity or carry out the development or have it provided or carried out through such agency as it deems fit.

Provided that before taking any action under this sub-section, the Authority shall afford reasonable opportunity to the owner of the land or to the person providing or responsible for providing the amenity to show cause as to why such action should not be taken.

(3) All expenses incurred by the Authority or the agency employed by it in providing the amenity or carrying out the development together with interest at such rate at the Central Government may by order fix from the date when a demand for the expenses is made until payment may be recovered by the Authority from the owner or the person providing or responsible for providing the amenity as arrears of land revenue.]

36. Power of Authority to require local authority to assume responsibility for amenities in certain cases— Where any area has been developed by the Authority, the Authority may require the local authority within whose local limits the area so developed is situated, to assume responsibility for the maintenance of the amenities which have been provided in the area by the Authority and for the provision of the amenities which have not been provided by the Authority but which in its opinion should be provided in the area, on terms and conditions agreed upon between the Authority and that local authority; and where such terms and conditions cannot be agreed upon, on terms and conditions settled by the Central Government in consultation with the local authority on a reference of the matter to that Government by the Authority.

[37. Power of Authority to levy betterment charges— (1) Where, in the opinion of the Authority, as a consequence of any development having been executed by the Authority in any development area, the value of any property in that area or in any area other than the development area, which has been benefited by the development, has increased or will increase, the Authority shall be entitled to levy upon the owner of the property or any person having an interest therein a betterment charge in respect of the increase in value of the property resulting from the execution of the development.

Provided that no betterment charge shall be levied in respect of lands owned by Government within Delhi.

Provided further that where any land belonging to Government has been let out by Government to any person, then that land and any building situate thereon shall be subject to a betterment charge under this section.

1. Subs. by Acts No. 56 of 1963, S. 18.

(2) Such betterment charge shall be an amount—

- (i) in respect of any property situate in a development area, equal to one-third of the amount, and
- (ii) in respect of property situate in any other area, not exceeding one-third of the amount, by which the value of the property on the completion of the execution of the development scheme estimated as if the property were clear of buildings exceeds the value of the property prior to such execution estimated in like manner.

Provided that in levying betterment charge on any property under clause (ii), the Authority shall have regard to the extent and nature of benefit accruing to the property from the development and such other factors as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf.]

38. Assessment of betterment charge by Authority— (1) When it appears to the Authority that any particular development scheme is sufficiently advanced to enable the amount of the betterment charge to be determined, the Authority may, by an order made in this behalf, declare that for the purpose of determining the betterment charge the execution of the scheme shall be deemed to have been completed and shall thereupon give notice in writing to the owner of the property or any person having an interest therein that the Authority proposes to assess the amount of the betterment charge in respect of the property under section 37.

(2) The Authority shall then assess the amount of betterment charge payable by the person concerned after giving such person an opportunity to be heard and such person shall, within three months from the date of receipt of the notice in writing of such assessment from the Authority, inform the Authority by a declaration in writing that he accepts the assessment or dissents from it.

(3) When the assessment proposed by the Authority is accepted by the person concerned within the period specified in sub-section (2) such assessment shall be final.

(4) If the person concerned dissents from the assessment or fails to give the Authority the information required by sub-section (2) within the period specified therein the matter shall be determined by arbitrators in the manner provided in section 39.

39. Settlement of betterment charge by arbitrators— (1) For the determination of the matter referred to in sub-section (4) of section 38, the Central Government shall appoint three arbitrators of whom one at least shall have special knowledge of the valuation of land.

(2) The arbitrators shall follow such procedure as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf.

¹[(2-A) The arbitrators shall, for the purpose of determining any matter referred to them, have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil

1. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S.19.

Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), when trying a suit, in respect of the following matters, namely :—

- (a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (b) requiring the discovery and production of documents;
- (c) administering to any party to the arbitration such interrogatories as may, in the opinion of the arbitrators, be necessary.]

(3) In the event of any difference of opinion among the arbitrators the decision of the majority shall prevail and that decision shall be the award of the arbitrators.

(4) If any arbitrator dies, resigns or is removed under sub-section (5) or refuses, or neglects in the opinion of the Central Government, to perform his duties or becomes incapable of performing the same, then the Central Government shall forthwith appoint another fit person to take the place of such arbitrator.

(5) If the Central Government is satisfied after such inquiry as it thinks fit—

- (a) that an arbitrator has misconducted himself, the Central Government may remove him from his office;
- (b) that the award of the arbitrators has been improperly procured or that any arbitrator has misconducted himself in connection with such award, the Central Government may set aside the award.

(6) An award which has not been set aside by the Central Government under clause (b) of sub-section (5) shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

(7) The provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1940 (10 of 1940), shall not apply to arbitration under this section.

40. Payment of betterment charge— (1) The betterment charge levied under this Act shall be payable in such number of instalments and each instalment shall be payable at such time and in such manner as may be fixed by regulations made in this behalf.

(2) Any arrear of betterment charge shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

[40-A. Mode of recovery of moneys due to Authority— Any money due to the Authority on account of fees or charges, or from the disposal of lands, buildings or other properties, movable, or immovable, or by way of rents and profits may, if the recovery thereof is not expressly provided for in any other provision of this Act, be recovered by the Authority as arrears of land revenue.]

41. Control by Central Government— (1) The Authority shall carry out such directions as may be issued to it from time to time by the Central Government for the efficient administration of this Act.

1. Ins by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 20.

(2) If in, or in connection with, the exercise of its powers and discharge of its functions by the Authority under this Act, any dispute arises between the Authority and the Central Government the decision of the Central Government on such dispute shall be final.

¹[(3) The Central Government may, at any time, either on its own motion or on application made to it in this behalf, call for the records of any case disposed of or order passed by the Authority for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any order passed or direction issued and may pass such order or issue such direction in relation thereto as it may think fit.

Provided that the Central Government shall not pass an order prejudicial to any person without affording such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard.]

²[42. Returns and inspection— (1) The Authority shall furnish to the Central Government such reports, returns and other information as that Government may from time to time require.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Central Government or any officer authorised by the Central Government in this behalf, may call for reports, returns and other information from the Authority or local authority in regard to the implementation of the master plan.

(3) Any person authorised by the Central Government or the officer referred to in sub-section (2) may enter into or upon any land with or without assistants or workmen for ascertaining whether the provisions of the master plan are being or have been implemented, or whether the development is being or has been carried out in accordance with such plan.

(4) No such entry shall be made except between the hours of sunrise and sunset and without giving reasonable notice to the occupier, or if there be no occupier, to the owner of the land or building.]

43. Service of notices, etc.— (1) All notices, orders and other documents required by this Act or any rule or regulation made thereunder to be served upon any person shall, save as otherwise provided in this Act or such rule or regulation, be deemed to be duly served—

(a) where the person to be served is a company if the document is addressed to the secretary of the company at its registered office or at its principal office or place of business and is either—

(i) sent by registered post, or

(ii) delivered at the registered office or at the principal office or place of business of the company;

(b) where the person to be served is a partnership, if the document is addressed to the partnership at its principal place of business,

1. Ins. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 21.

2. Subs. by Act No. 56 of 1963, S. 22.

identifying it by the name or style under which its business is carried on, and is either—

- (i) sent by registered post, or
 - (ii) delivered at the said place of business;
- (c) where the person to be served is a public body or a corporation or society or other body, if the document is addressed to the secretary, treasurer or other head officer of that body, corporation or society at its principal office, and is either—
- (i) sent by registered post, or
 - (ii) delivered at that office;
- (d) in any other case, if the document is addressed to the person to be served and—
- (i) is given or tendered to him, or
 - (ii) if such person, cannot be found, is affixed on some conspicuous part of his last known place of residence or business, if within the [National Capital Territory of Delhi] or is given or tendered to some adult member of his family or is affixed on some conspicuous part of the land or building to which it relates, or
 - (iii) is sent by registered post to that person.

(2) Any document which is required or authorised to be served on the owner or occupier of any land or building may be addressed "the owner" or "the occupier", as the case may be, of that land or building (naming that land or building) without further name or description, and shall be deemed to be duly served—

- (a) if the document so addressed is sent or delivered in accordance with clause (d) of sub-section (1); or
- (b) if the document so addressed or a copy thereof so addressed, is delivered to some person on the land or building or, where there is no person on the land or building to whom it can be delivered, is affixed to some conspicuous part of the land or building.

(3) Where a document is served on a partnership in accordance with this section, the document shall be deemed to be served on each partner.

(4) For the purpose of enabling any document to be served on the owner of any property the secretary to the Authority may by notice in writing require the occupier (if any) of the property to state the name and address of the owner thereof.

Explanation— The term “fee” used here shall have the meaning assigned to it in Fundamental Rule 9 (6-A).

13-A. Subletting and vacation of Authority Accommodation— (1) Save as otherwise provided in any other law for the time being in force, no employee shall sublet lease or otherwise allow occupation by any other person of Authority accommodation which has been allotted to him.

(2) An employee shall, after the cancellation of allotment of accommodation vacate the same within the time limit prescribed by the allotting authority.

14. Investment Lending and Borrowing— (1) No employee shall speculate in any stock, share or other investment.

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall apply to occasional investments made through stock brokers or other persons duly authorised and licenced or who have obtained a certificate of registration under the relevant law.

Explanation— Frequent purchase or sale or both of share, securities or other investments shall be deemed to be speculation within the meaning of this sub-rule:

(2) No employee shall make, or permit any member of his family or any person acting on his behalf to make, any investment which is likely to embarrass or influence him in the discharge of his official duties. For this purpose, any purchase of shares out of the quotas reserved for Directors of Companies or their friends and associates shall be deemed to be an investment which is likely to embarrass the employee.

(3) If any question arises whether any transaction is of the nature referred to in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2), the decision of the Authority thereon shall be final.

(4) (i) No employee shall have in the ordinary/course of business with a bank or a public limited company, either himself or through any member of his family or any other person acting on his behalf.

(a) Lend or borrow or deposit money, as principal or an agent to or from or with, any person or firm or private limited company within the local limits of his authority or with whom he is likely to have official dealings or otherwise place himself under any pecuniary obligation to such person or firm or private limited company or.

(b) Lend money to any person at interest or in a manner whereby return in money or in kind is charged or paid, provided that an employee may give to, or accept from a relative or a personal friend a purely temporary loan of a small amount free of interest, or operate credit account with a bonafide tradesman or make an advance of pay to his private employee.

Provided further that nothing in this sub-rule shall apply in respect of any transaction entered by an employee with the previous sanction of the Authority.

- (ii) When an employee is appointed or transferred to a post of such nature as would involve him in breach of any of the provisions of sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (4), he shall forthwith report the circumstances to the prescribed authority and shall thereafter act in accordance with such order as may be made by such authority.

15. Insolvency and Habitual Indebtedness—(1) An employee of the Authority shall avoid habitual indebtedness unless he proves that such indebtedness or insolvency is the result of circumstances beyond his control and does not proceed from extravagance or dissipation.

(2) An employee of the Authority who applies to be, or is adjudged or declared insolvent shall forthwith report the fact to the competent authority.

16. Movable, Immovable and Valuable Property—(1) No employee of the Authority shall except with the previous knowledge of the competent authority, acquire or dispose of any immovable property by lease, mortgage, purchase, sale, gift or otherwise, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family. No employee of the authority shall speculate in any stock, share or other investment. Frequent purchase or sale or both of shares, debentures or other investment shall be deemed to be speculation within the meaning of this sub-rule.

(2) No employee of the authority shall except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, enter into any transaction concerning any immovable or movable property with a person or a firm having official dealings with the employee or his subordinate.

(3) Every employee of the Authority shall report within one month, to the competent authority every transaction concerning movable property owned or held by him in his own name or in the name of a member of his family, if the value of such property exceeds Rs.10000/- in case of Group C & D employees and Rs. 15,000/- in case of Group A & B officers. An intimation shall also be made (on the proforma) where cumulative transaction i.e. sale, purchase or both in share, debentures or mutual funds etc. in a year exceeds Rs. 25,000/- in case of Group C and D employees Rs. 50,000/- in case of Group A and B officers.

Explanation 1— The term "every transaction concerning movable property owned or held by him" includes all transactions of sale or purchase.

For purposes of this sub-regulation, the definition of movable property would include:

- (a) jewellery, insurance policies the annual premia of which exceeds Rs.10,000/- or one sixth of the total annual emoluments received from the Authority whichever is less;

(ii) not be under the influence of any intoxicating drink or drug during the course of his duty and shall also take due care that the performance of his duties at any time is not affected in any way by the influence of such drink or drug,

(iii) refrain from consuming any intoxicating drink or drug in a public place,

(iv) not appear in a public place in a state of intoxication,

(v) not use any intoxicating drink or drug in excess.

Explanation— For the purpose of this rule "Public Place" means any place or premises (including clubs, even exclusively meant for members where it is permissible for the members to invite non-members as guests, bars and restaurants, conveyance to which the public have or are permitted to have access, whether on payment or otherwise.

20. Suspension— (1) The appointing authority or any authority to which it is subordinate or the disciplinary authority or any authority empowered in that behalf by the Authority by general or special order may place an employee under suspension:—

- (a) Where disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending, or
- (b) Where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation, inquiry or trial.

Provided that where an order of suspension is made by an Authority, lower than the Appointing Authority, such authority shall forthwith report to the Appointing Authority the circumstances in which the order was made.

(2) An employee who is detained in custody, whether on a criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding 48 hours shall be deemed to have been suspended with effect from the date of detention by an order of the appointing authority, and shall remain under suspension until further orders.

(2A) W.e.f. the date of his conviction, if in the event of conviction for an offence, he is sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding 48 hrs and he is not forthwith dismissed or removed or compulsorily retired consequent to such conviction.

(3) Where a penalty of dismissal or removal or compulsorily retirement from service imposed upon an employee under suspension is set aside on appeal or on review under these rules and the case is remitted for further enquiry or action or with any other directions, the order of his suspension shall be deemed to have continued in force on and from the date of the original order of dismissal or removal and shall remain in force until further orders.

(4) Where a penalty of dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an employee is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence of or by a decision of a court of law and the disciplinary authority in consideration of the circumstances of the case, decides to hold further inquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty of dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement was originally imposed, the employee shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by the appointing authority from the date of the original orders of dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement and shall continue to remain under suspension until further orders.

(5) (a) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this rule may at any time be revoked by the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order or by any authority to which that authority is subordinate.

(b) Where an employee is suspended or is deemed to have been suspended (whether in connection with any disciplinary proceedings or otherwise) and any other disciplinary proceedings is commenced against him during the continuation of that suspension, the authority competent to place him under suspension, may for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, direct that the employee shall continue to be under suspension until the termination of all or any of such proceedings.

21. Subsistence Allowance— (1) An employee under suspension shall be entitled to draw subsistence allowance upto first three months of the period of suspension equal to 50% of his basic pay provided the disciplinary authority is satisfied that the employee is not engaged in any other employment or business or profession or vacation. In addition, he shall be entitled to Dearness Allowance admissible on such subsistence allowance and any other compensatory allowance of which he was in receipt on the date of suspension provided the suspending authority is satisfied that employee continued to meet the expenditure for which the allowance was granted.

(2) When the period of suspension exceeds three months, the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order of suspension shall be competent to vary the amount of subsistence allowance for any period subsequent to the period of the first three months as follows.

(i) the amount of subsistence allowance may be increased to 75% of basic pay and allowance thereon if, in the opinion of said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing not directly attributable to the employee under suspension.

- (ii) the amount of subsistence allowance may be reduced to 25% of basic pay and allowance thereon if in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged due to the reasons to be recorded in writing, directly attributable to the employee under suspension.

(3) If any employee is arrested by the police on a criminal charge and bail is not granted, no subsistence allowance is payable. On grant of bail if the competent authority decides to continue the suspension, the employee shall be entitled to subsistence allowance from the date he is granted bail.

22. Treatment of the Period of Suspension— (1) When the employee under suspension is reinstated the competent authority may grant him the following pay and allowances for the period of suspension:

- (a) If the employee is exonerated and not awarded any of the penalties mentioned in Regulation 23, the full pay and allowances which he would have been entitled to if he had not been suspended, less the subsistence allowance already paid to him; and
- (b) if otherwise, such proportion of pay and allowances as the competent authority may prescribe.

(2) In a case falling under sub-clause (a) the period of absence from duty will be treated as a period spent on duty. In cases falling under sub-clause (b) it will not be treated as period spent on duty unless the competent authority so directs.

23. Penalties— The following penalties may be imposed on an employee, as hereinafter provided for misconduct committed by him or for any other good and sufficient reasons.

Minor Penalties

- (a) Censure.
